LONDON, FRIDAY, September 4, 1730. NUMB. XXI.

Some Account of the Iſland CORSICA.

" As our Foreign Mails produce little worth Notice, or at leaſt " much to be depended on, and many are of Opinion, that " the Iſland Corſica will ſoon make a different Figure from " what it now does, it may not be altogether improper to " give a tranſient Sketch of its ancient and preſent State, " whereby to enable ſuch as may be wholly unacquainted with " its Hiſtory to form ſome Idea of the Spot of Ground which may " probably afford a Royal Title to a certain Catholic Prince."

CORSICA is an Iſland ſituated in the Mediterranean, about an Hour's Sailing from the moſt Northern Part of the Iſland Sardinia. Its more ancient Name was Tercepne, given it by the Greeks, who afterwards called it Cirne, from Cirnus, ſaid to be the Son of Hercules. Hiſtory alſo aſſures us, that in Proceſs of Time a Ligurian Woman, named Corſa Bibulca, planted there a Colony of Ligurians (modernly called Genoueſes) and gave it the Name of Corſica, which it ſtill retains; as do the Genoueſes the Sovereignty thereof: But how long theſe Republicans will keep the ſame ſeems now to be a Queſtion, it being deemed by ſome worthier Perſonages to lye ſomewhat conveniently for their Purpoſe. [See our 19th Number where ſufficient Reaſon is alleged.]——The Tuſcans were the firſt Sovereigns of this Iſland. From them it was taken by the Carthaginians: And it was afterwards intirely reduced by the Romans, under Scipio. It was ſubdued by Alaric the Goth: And, in the Eighth Century, it was poſſeſſed by the Saracens, Moors, or Arabs; but they were alſo expelled ſome Time after. The Republics of Genoua and Piſa have had very ſmart Conflicts on account of this Iſland; and thoſe of Piſa, tho' dwindled to a mere Shadow, ſtill lay ſomewhat of a Claim to it, as their rightful Territory, tho' they themſelves have long been Subjects to the Grand Dukes of Tuſcany.——This Iſland (which had anciently its own Kings, and ſtill is called a Kingdom) is in Length, from North to South, near 40 Leagues, in Breadth, from Eaſt to Weſt, about 17, and near 100 in Circumference. Aleria and Mariana were in ancient Times its moſt noted Towns; but now little remains of their priſtine Splendor, being quite ruined: One is ſaid to be founded by Sylla and the other by Marius. The Capital is Baſtia: And Ajazzo, Calvi, Nebbia, Corte, Bonifacio, &c. are tolerable Places: This laſt is reckoned the moſt commodious Port in the whole Iſland. The Inhabitants divide the Country into four Provinces: The Eaſtern Province they call, Banda di dentro: The Weſtern, Banda di fuora: The Southern, Di là Monti: The Northern, Di quá Monti. Their Language is a paſſable Dialect of the Italian. It has three pretty conſiderable Rivers, Liamon, Tavignano, and Guolo, all preceeding from two great Lakes on the Top of the Mountain Gradaccio, towards the Center of the Iſland; the two firſt from the Lake Crena, the third from that of Ivo.——Corſica has five Biſhopricks; namely Ajazzo, Aleria, Sagona, Mariana and Nebbia; and the firſt four Cities being ruined, their Prelates reſide either at Baſtia, or in Villages. The firſt three Biſhops are Suffragans of Piſa, and the other two of Genoua.——The Corſi are a Martial People, but deſperate, cruel, revengeful and unpolite. We often read of great Diſturbances at Rome, occaſioned by the impatient Humour of the Pope's Corſi Guards; ſeveral Embaſſadors having narrowly eſcaped with Life: And the Truth is, like their Neighbours the Sardi, they are a wild, unmanageable Sort of Gentry. The Renegadoes of theſe Iſlands, eſpecially the Corſi, are much eſteemed in Barbary, where they abound; and many of them have become famous Commanders; but more for Land than Sea Exploits.—— As to the reſt, the Air of Corſica is not very healthy, nor the Soil much famed for its Fertility: However the Vallies produce a ſufficient Quantity of Corn, Oil, Wines and Fruits, for the Inhabitants, the Country not being exorbitantly populous: Nor are the Mountains quit barren. They have alſo ſome Iron Mines, and good Store of Cattle. Some Hundreds of Maniots are ſettled there, ſince their Country fell under the Yoke of the Ottomans: Theſe are a Sort of Greeks, wild Gentry not unlike the Corſi, whoſe Country, called Mania, lies to the Eaſt of the Gulph of Coron, on the Coaſt of the Morea, from Cape Matapan to the Neighbourhood of Calamata. Before we quit this Subject, I cannot omit one Curioſity found in this Iſland, viz. the Stone Catechita, which ſticks to the Hand like Pitch or Glue.—" Thus much " concerning Corſica (for the preſent) which will probably " be the Scene of Action before many Weeks are paſt; if " we may depend on our Intelligence. In our next, if " nothing more material interferes, ſomething ſhall be ſaid " of its preſent Condition."

" N. B. There was once a Talk of raiſing a Contribu- " tion, from among the Catholic Potentates, to purchaſe " of the Genoueſes the Kingdom of Corſica for the Chevalier " De S. George."

FRIDAY, Auguſt 31.

By a private Letter from the Hague, dated Sept. 1. N. S. We learn, that the Prince Royal of Pruſſia has been lately ſeen at Francfort, with a ſmall Retinue (or Guard) in his Way to Anſpach.——Here has been a warm Controverſy carried on between M. De la Chapelle and M. Saurin, two Miniſters, of the French Church here, about GOD's Order to Samuel, to go and anoint David King, 1 Sam. xvi. 1, 2, &c. viz. Fill thine Horn with Oil, and I will ſend thee to Jeſſe the Bethlehemite: For I have provided me a King among his Sons. And Samuel ſaid, How can I go? If Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the Lord ſaid, Take a Heifer with thee, and ſay, I am come to ſacrifice to the Lord. From which M. Saurin argues; That there are ſome Caſes, wherein Diſſimulation is not only permitted, but ordered by GOD as proper and moral. M. De la Chapelle, with great Aſperity on his Antagoniſt's Perſon and Character, denies this Concluſion, and ſays it is to make GOD a Liar; and affirms, that there are two orders in this Command, one to anoint David, and the other to ſacrifice. To which M. Saurin replies, that the Sacrifice ordered was only a Pretence, for Samuel's Security, as appears plainly from the Text; and that the ſole End and Intent of his Commiſſion was to anoint David King. This Controverſy has gone ſo far, that the general Synod has been ſummoned thereupon, which met Yeſterday; and it is thought it will end in the ſilencing both the Diſputants.

By private Advices from Conſtantinople, dated July 7. We learn, that his Excellency Abr. Stanyan, Eſq; had taken Leave and was aboard the Torrington Man of War, Capt. Vincent, which was to depart that Afternoon for Smyrna, to remain three Days and then make the beſt of his Way for England. They add, that the Loſs of him is univerſally lamented and regretted by Turks, Jews, and Chriſtians.—The ſame Letters aſſure us, that the Turks are outwardly making great Preparations for War with the Perſians, only waiting the Return of their laſt Expreſs ſent to receive their final Anſwer; when the Viſier himſelf is to depart with his Troops, and to winter at Aleppo, and the Grand Signor is to croſs the Helleſpont and reſide at Pruſa. Time muſt ſhew the Reſult. No great Demand is, as yet made for Cloth: But if the Perſian War ſhould recommence in good earneſt, it will cauſe a very good Trade next Year at Aleppo.

From Paris they write, that a Mooriſh Woman has been lately there delivered of two Children, one quite Black and the other very White: This muſt afford Matter for the learned Naturaliſts to employ their Talents.——And from the ſame Place we alſo learn, that a certain Knave of a Huiſſier, or Bailiff, contrived the following Stratagem to arreſt a Perſon who cared not to truſt himſelf without the Door of his Houſe, which is in Rue Arniſale. He went bedaubed with Embroidery, in a ſtately Coach, with two Varlets of his Retinue in Liveries behind, and in all Appearance like a firſt Rate Monſr. le Marquis: And the better to carry on the Deceit, a Pair of Crutches peeped out of the Coach, to make believe his Honour was gouty. By this Wile, his good Lordſhip's pretended Lackies got Admittance within this cautious Man's Doors, dragged him to M. le Marquis, and hurried away with him to Priſon.—" How " this Procedure would have paſſed Muſter elſewhere, " I ſhall not go about to determine: But at Paris, it ſeems, " this Affair was deemed unfair Practice by his Varletſhip's " Betters, and the Man was ſafely reconducted to his Sanc- " tuary."——" Now we are upon the Article of Tricks, " and the like, it may not be improper to inſert a ſurpriſing " Account of a moſt notable Cheat, impoſed on a conſiderable " Number of his Majeſty's good Subjects Abroad. It bears " Date July 2, 1730, and was tranſmitted hither from " Penſylvania: Viz."

Charleſtown, in South-Carolina, June 11, 1730. We have lately had a moſt ſucceſsful Cheat put upon the whole Country, by one who called himſelf A——r C———s, Eſq; a Stranger, who firſt arrived here between three and four Months ſince. He pretended to be a Gentleman of a great Eſtate in England, that he intended to ſettle in Carolina, and do wonderful Things for the Good of the Country. He began his Game by iſſuing out Promiſory Notes; and by his punctual Payment of them in Gold or Silver upon Sight, in a little Time they acquired a Credit and Currency equal with Money. He then erected a Loan-Office of his own, ſigned great Quantities of his Notes, and emitted them upon Loan at 10 per Cent. Intereſt; the Borrowers mortgaging their Eſtates to him for Security. The Infatuation being general, and the County filled with his Notes that were borrowed, he had an Opportunity of paſſing as many as he pleaſed himſelf, buying up with them abundance of Gold and Silver, and a great deal of County produce which he ſhipped away continually. He ſet up three Offices in different Places, for receiving and changing his Notes into Specie, which continued to ſupport their Credit. He alſo brought ſeveral large Plantations, and built a Stone Houſe with Walls three Feet thick, and ſtrong Doors and Windows, which he called his Treaſury. In fine, having drawn Bills of Exchange to a conſiderable Sum, and ſold them for ready Caſh, he went away publicly in a Man of War bound home, juſt three Weeks before one of his firſt Bills came back proteſted, with the Character of the Drawer. His Notes immediately loſt all their Credit, and ſunk in the Hands of the Poſſeſſors, being now worth no more than Waſte-Paper; and his Treaſury being broke open, nothing was found in it but ſome empty Boxes, old Iron, and other Rubbiſh. It is computed he has not carried off leſs than 15,000*l. Sterling*; and we have only this Comfort left for the Loſs of our Money, that no Man can laugh at his Neighbours; or indeed, that every Man can laugh at all his Neighbours.

Signor Seniſino, the famous Italian Eunuch and Singer, has contracted to come over hither againſt the Winter, to perform under Mr. Heydegger in the Italian Operas.

Yeſterday the Indian Chiefs were handſomly entertained at the Three-Tuns in White-Conduit Field, by a Society of Archers: The ſaid Indians are themſelves reckoned very expert at Bows and Arrows; but they did not perform altogether ſo well as was expected; which they alleged was owing to the Difference between the American and Engliſh Bows and Arrows.

Tueſday laſt the Lady of Sir Wm. Burdet, of the Kingdom of Ireland, Bart. was brought to Bed of a ſtill-born Child, at that Gentleman's Lodgings in Arlington-Street.

We hear a Diſcovery was lately made, to the Directors of Greenwich Hoſpital, of a conſiderable Sum of Money, appropriated by Act of Parliament to the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, ſaid to have been ſecreted ever ſince the laſt War, and that they are now inquiring into that Affair.

Rob. &c. Yeſterday Morn. Mr. Chapman, a Farmer of Endfield, was, near Edmonton, by three Foot-pads, robbed of a Guinea and a Half, and ſome Silver; They afterwards turned his Horſe looſe.——The ſame Day Benj. Sandford was committed to Newgate, for ſtealing a Tarpaulin out of a Hoy near Bear-Key.

Pref. Major Leighton, of the Reg. of Foot in the Iſland of Minorca, late Col. Roger Handaſyde's, is appointed to ſucceed Major Sleigh, deceaſed, as Major to Col. Roger Handaſyde's Reg. of Foot in Great-Britain, which was lately the Earl of Deloraine's.

Mar. Mr. Hyatt, Apothecary at Epſom, was Yeſterday married to Mrs. Webb of Goodman's-Fields, a very agreeable Gentlewoman, and a good Fortune.

Deaths. Sunday laſt died Sam. Sleigh, Eſq; Major, &c. is above.——As did, laſt Wedneſday, at his Lodgings near Shoe-Lane, the Rev. Mr. Rich. Roach.

SATURDAY, Auguſt 29.

The Eyles, Capt. Winter, who arrived the 27th Inſt. at Dover, from the Bay of Bengal and Madraſs in Eaſt-India, brings an Account of the taking of one of the two Oſtend Ships (which had been blocked up in one of the Harbours of the Great Mogul by the Engliſh and Dutch Ships) commanded by one Combes, an Engliſhman, under Poliſh Colours, who was formerly Commander of the Grocers-Fregate in the Barbadoes Trade, and afterwards turned Smuggler, and fled, on his dangerouſly wounding a Cuſtom-Houſe Officer, when he was running Goods in Vauxhall Creek. Combes perceiving, as he was coming near the Mouth of the River of Bengal, the Engliſh and Dutch Ships ready to intercept his Paſſage, took to his Boat, and got on Shore; but was ſeized by the Engliſh Factory at Bengal, and put in Irons. The Ship was carried in there, and her Hatches ſealed up, till it is determined what to do with her. She is not above half loaded, therefore not ſo good a Prize to the Captors, as they are firſt expected.——The Eyles left the Graham, Capt. Field, the 17th Inſt. at Sea; ſo that is hourly expected. They both came from S. Helena the 25th of June laſt, at which Place they left the Marlborough, Capt. Micklefield; the Windham, Capt. Lyell; and the Greenwich, late Capt. Lazenby, now Capt. Bookie, all from Eaſt-India, who would ſail in about three or four Days from thence for London.——The Norwich, Capt. Goſfright, as ſhe was going into Bengal, ran on a Sand, and is in great Danger of being loſt; but her Goods are all taken out. She was one of thoſe that lay to intercept the Oſtenders, on board both which Ships were ſeveral Engliſhmen.

From Dartmouth, they write, Aug. 25. That on the 23d, the Princeſs-Royal, Capt. Aſh, brought in there a Smack belonging to Bigbary Bay, with two Men and a Boy, pretending they were going a Fiſhing.

Yeſterday the Seſſions began at the Old-Baily, when 17 Priſoners were tried, but none convicted capitally.

We hear that Maurice Hunt, Eſq; who died lately at Paris (as mentioned in our laſt) has left to Mr. Wm. Morehead (a very ingenious and deſerving Gentleman) his Tutor, the Value of about 40,000l.

It is ſaid, that the Charge of the Serpentine River, which is to be made in Hyde-Park, will amount to upwards of 2000l. and that the ſame will be carried on with all poſſible Diligence.

From Dublin, under Aug. 24, we have the following Advices: Viz. Thurſday laſt between Six and Seven Afternoon, the long expected John Kelley (one of thoſe concerned in the Rape lately committed on the Body of Mrs. Eleanor O Neil, for which he fled to England, whither he was purſued, taken and committed to Carliſle Jail) was brought hither from thence, in Cuſtody of a Meſſenger, the Jailer of Carliſle, and the two Perſons who firſt ſeized him there. Yeſterday he was arraigned, and this Day tried, convicted, carried from the Tholſel, and executed, near the Linnen-Hall where the Fact was committed.—The Rev. Mr. Bradford ſucceeds the late Mr. Dongat, in the Pariſh of St. Andrew's, in the City of Dublin.—— This Morn. (add theſe Advices) ſailed the Jane and Mary, Capt. Dun, for Spain, with a Cargo conſiſting chiefly of Linnen Cloth, of the Manufacture of this Kingdom.

The Armory in the Guard-Chamber in the Royal Palace of S. James's is cleaning, and the Houſe repairing and beautifying with all Expedition.

Caſual. Yeſterday Morn. Mr. Woodyer, who keeps the King's-Arms Tavern on Ludgate-Hill, having had ſome Differences with his Wife, raſhly cut his Throat: But as he did it not effectually, there is Hope of his Recovery. He is now under the Care of a very able Surgeon.—— Laſt Night, after 11, a Fire broke out in the Houſe of Mr. Cornwall, a noted Tobacconiſt in Watling-Street; which, with thoſe of Mr. Goſtelow, a Diſtiller, and of Dr. Douglaſs (which lay backward in Bow-Lane) were ſoon utterly conſumed; and ſome other adjoining Houſes were greatly damaged. The Loſs is very conſiderable; but we do not hear of any Lives loſt, tho' the Inhabitants narrowly eſcaped, particularly the Doctor and his Family, moſt of them little better than naked.

Com. A reprobate Fellow, named Edw. Lloyd, was Yeſterday conducted to Newgate, for being too buſy about Peoples Pockets.

Pref. The Rev. Mr. John White, Curate of Totteridge, was lately preſented, by the Biſhop of Lincoln, to the Church of Horbling, in the County of Lincoln.

Mar. This Day Sir Sam. Barnardiſton, Bart. of Ketton in Suffolk, is to be married, at Whiteball Chappel to Miſs Catherine Winn, a Lady of great Merit and Fortune, Siſter of Sir Rowland Winn, of Noſtal-Abbey in Yorkſhire, Bart.

Deaths. Thurſday Morn. laſt, died the Rev. Mr. Hen. Goſling, one of the Minor Canons, and Senior Cardinal, at St. Paul's Cathedral, alſo Reader at St. Gregory's, a Perſon who bore a very good Character. We hear thoſe Places are in the Gift of the Dean and Chapter.——Died Yeſterday Morn. Mr. Eaton, Attorney at Law, at his Houſe in Cannon-Street.

MONDAY, Auguſt 31.

A few Days ſince, Col. Charteres ſold off his South-Sea Stock, and paid the following agreed-on Sums by Way of Compoſition with the Sheriffs of London and High-Bailiff of Weſtm. for the Effects by them ſeized on his late Attainder and Conviction: Viz. To Wm. Morrice, Eſq; 5000l. To Mr. Alderman Barber and Sir John Williams, Sheriffs; each 1650l. Total 8300. We hear the Colonel's Lady is returning to Scotland.

Twenty of the South-Sea Company's Ships are returned from the Whale Fiſhery, having brought home 12 Whales: The other two Ships finding no Proſpect of ſucceeding in Greenland, went to ſeek their Fortunes elſewhere; but as yet there is no farther Account either of them or their Succeſs.

The curious Marble Statute of K. Charles II. in the Middle of the Royal Exchange, having been taken down in order to be repaired and beautified, was Saturday laſt replaced on a more elevated Pedeſtal, at the Charge of the Company of Merchants-Adventurers of England, of which John Hanbury, Eſq; is Governor.

Alſo on Saturday three Malefactors were convicted Capitally at the Old Baily, viz. Gilbert Laurence, on the Oath of Paul Oliver, for forcibly committing with and on him the unnatural Sin of Sodomy. Andrew Dalton, for ſtealing from his Maſter, Mr. John Rawlins, a Horſe, a Gold headed Cane, two Pair of Silver Buckles, and other Things. And Nicholas Gilburne, a Soldier, for robbing John Hall, near Paddington, of 40 Yards of Silk and four Pair of Stockings, Value about 15l.

Our Heroine (of whom ſuch frequent Mention has been made in ſome of our Regiſters) Mrs. Mary Harvey, al. Sinclair, al. Phillips, al. Mac Caig, was on Friday laſt brought up from the Gatehouſe to the Old-Baily, to give Evidence againſt Michael and John Willis, on the Indictment ſhe preferred againſt them laſt Seſſions, for robbing her of three gold Rings; the Willis's having ſurrendered themſelves, to take their Trial on that Indictment. Her Behavior there was ſomewhat more modeſt than uſual, thro' the indefatigable Pains of Mr. Serjeant Raby, who found himſelf very often obliged to threaten her, for diſturbing the Proceedings of the Court on the Trial, which, by the Help of her Interruptions, laſted ſeveral Hours; at the Concluſion whereof the Willis's were honourably acquitted, and ſhe returned to her former Lodgings in the Gatehouſe.

Caſual. Yeſterday Morn. a middle-aged Perſon (ſince known to be Mr. Broadway, Surgeon of his Majeſty's Ship Sunderland, now at Sheerneſs) as he was going along Fen-Church-Street, fell down dead, in an Apoplectic Fit; and tho' he was inſtantly carried to the White Elephant and blooded, it had no Effect.——The Son of a Whip-Maker, aged 12, was drowned from off a Lighter in the Thames: When his Father was told of the Misfortune, he fell into ſuch Agonies, which were accompanied with Fits, that it is thought he would have expired.

Rob. &c. Friday Night laſt, about 11, Mr. Royſton, of the York-Buildings Company, was ſet upon, in Wincheſter-Street, by ſix Rogues; two held Piſtols to his Head, while the reſt rifled him. Finding only 10s. they curſed him very liberally, and ſeized his Hat and Peruke: However one of thoſe Collectors had the Civility to cover his Head with his own Hat, which on Examination was found of no very great Value.——Next Morn. three worthy Gentlemen of the ſame Vocation, attacked by Mr. Kirk, an Engraver, as he was paſſing along in George-Street, near Goldſmith's Hall. One held a Piſtol to his Breaſt while he gave them all his Money, which being only 16s. 6d. it was judged too little; ſo they made it up with the good Hat and Peruke he wore: But thoſe ill-bred Churls had the Conſcience to ſend Mr. Kirk home quite bare-headed.—— The ſame Day, about Four Afternoon, the Briſtol Coach was robbed, on Hounſlow Heath, by one Highwayman in Black, and on a Bay Mare, who took from the Paſſengers 20s. and a ſilver Watch. He returned the Watch, ſaying; "He wanted not Watches but Money."——But Mary Watſon and Kate Cannon, are ſent to Newgate, for ſtealing a ſilver Watch. —— And the ſaid right-judging Adventurer (who was ſenſible Money had no Ear-Marks, like Watches, &c.) had the Misfortune to be purſued and taken, that very Evening, after having borrowed 15s. from a Peaſant on the ſame Road.

Pref. His Majeſty having been pleaſed to grant to the Hon. Wm. Flemming, Ld. Baron of Slane in the Kingdom of Ireland, a Penſion of 400l per Ann. upon the Eſtabliſhment of that Ringdom, the proper Warrant paſſed the Treaſury and Signet Offices.——Mr. Adams of Cranborn-Alley is made Optician to his R. H. the P. of Wales.—— Mr. Norris of Vine-Street, Weſtminſter, Carpenter to Weſtminſter-Abbey, is appointed Carpenter to his Majeſty at the Palaces of St. James's, Hampton-Court, Kenſington, Whitehall, and Windſor.——Mr. Carne, Glazier of S. Martin's Lane, is appointed Glazier to his Majeſty, with Mr. Corner of Scotland-Yard.——Mr. Cleave of Greenwich, Blackſmith, is appointed Blackſmith to his Majeſty with Mr. Pearſehouſe. ——And Mr. Mines, of North-Street, Weſtminſter, is appointed Plaiſterer to his Majeſty.

Deaths. The 26th paſt, died at his Seat, Coſteſey-Hall, in Norfolk, in a very advanced Age, Sir Fra. Jernegan, Bart. a Gentleman of a moſt worthy Character, extremely beloved and much lamented. By his Lady, Ann, Daughter of Sir Geo. Blount, he has left ſix Sons and two Daughters; and is ſucceeded in Title, Honour and Eſtate by his Eldeſt Son, now Sir John Jernegan, Bart.——This Family is of ſuch Antiquity, that 700 Years ſince, our Daniſh King Canute infeoffed one of the Jernegans with ſeveral Manors in Norfolk; he being a General in high Eſteem with that Prince, for his Loyalty and Bravery.——Saturday laſt, died, at the Houſe of his Son, a Grocer in Monument-Yard, Mr. Joſeph Marlow, a noted Goldſmith of this City.——Yeſterday Morn. Mr. Philips, a noted Coach-maker, died at his Houſe in St. Martin's-Lane Charing-Croſs. It is remarkable, that ſome Years ſince a Farrier, who was his Relation, attacked him in the Night at his own Door, and threw a Bottle of Aqua Fortis in his Face, by which barbarous Action he loſt one of his Eyes, and had like to have loſt both, and his Face was very much ſcarified; for which the ſaid Farrier was tried at the Old Baily, and caſt for Tranſportation, but he died in Newgate. Alſo, about 18 Months paſt, as he was returning home from Herefordſhire, with his Daughter, he was attacked, in Maidenhead Thicket by a Highwayman, who ſhot himſelf above the Thigh with two Balls, which lodged in his Body and could never be extracted.

TUESDAY, September 1.

They write from Plymouth, that on the 26th paſt, put in there the Anna-Conſtantia of and for Amſterdam, from Smyrna, where the Capt. came on Shore, but was ſoon after ordered on Board again to perform Quarantine, and the Cuſtom-Houſe Officers, who were placed on Board her, were, for fear of the worſt, inſtantly recalled, and a ſtrict Guard is ordered to kept in her. She has on Board 30 Men, ſix of them ſick, but the Capt. reports they are only ill of the Scurvy: He had a tedious Paſſage, upwards of three Months, and was obliged to put in there for freſh Water and Hands.

We hear, that the preſent Utretcht Lottery will begin drawing on Monday next, the 7th Inſt. and that the Hague Lottery is expected to begin drawing on the 14th Inſt. that, at Bridge's Coffee-Houſe in Cornhill (where Tickets in both Lotteries may be procured, and the Prizes diſcounted) are kept ſuch exact Numerical Tables of the ſaid Lotteries, that any Perſons concerned in either of them, may ſee directly the Succeſs of any Ticket thereof, in the printed Liſts, which come every Poſt from Holland, when drawing; and by regiſtering their Numbers, may have immediate Notice ſent them of their Succeſs in every Claſs, either in Town or Country.

Sunday Morn. laſt, Philip Sullivan, Lucy Neyle, Theodoſia Brown, Mary Stiles, Mary Lee, Elizabeth Coxeter, and Anne Bowman (the firſt a very ſad Fellow and the others very lewd, ſhameleſs Punks) were committed to Tothill-Fields Bridewell, by Sir John Gonſon, who ſeems determined to make clean Work with this Sort of People. The ſaid Mr. Sullivan, beſides other Qualities, is a moſt formidable Bully for the Ladies of the Hundreds and Parts adjacent; and lately terrified two Watchmen for preſuming to interrupt him in ſome of his laudable Proceedings: N. B. I am not certain this is not the Hibernian ſaid, a Night or two ſince, to have been ſurpriſed, on or againſt a Bulk, or the like, ſomewhere in Drury-Lane, acting Indecencies with a Female: I ſay I am not certain.——Sir John Gonſon alſo granted his Warrant againſt a loving Couple who keep a not-very orderly Brandy-Shop, which is open all Night, for the Reception and Entertainment of Sinners, and from whence they ſally out into the Streets, when they have an Opportunity to rob, or do any other Miſchief.

On Friday laſt, the South-Carolina Princes, &c. viſited the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, with which they ſeemed highly delighted; but what pleaſed and ſurpriſed them moſt, was a View of Dr. Pocock's elegant Collection of Rarities, where they ſaw divers Weapons and other Things, the Product and Manufacture of their own Country. They were handſomly treated afterwards, by Capt. Smith, in the Council-Chamber.

Yeſterday two Copper Globes, made by a Copper-Smith in Jermyn-Street, three Feet ſix Inches Diameter, were put on board a Ship, for the Uſe of the King of Portugal.

The ſame Day at the Old Baily eight Malefactors were convicted Capitally, viz. Nic. Bennet, Joſ. Robinſon, John Head, and Geo. Taverner, for aſſaulting John Bereſford, and tying him down to a Floor in New-Priſon, and taking out of his Pocket two Half Guineas, two Sixpences and ſome Half-pence: Sam. Armſtrong and Tho. Griffiths, al. Butler, for Burglary: Tho. Hitchin for robbing Tho. Andrews between Hampſtead and Highgate, of his Mare, Whip, and 8s. And Kingdel Street, for Shoplifting.——So that 11 Criminals are already under Capital Conviction, in Newgate.

Saturday Night laſt, a Fire happened at a Dry Cooper's in Friday-Street (as they ſay, by drying of Casks) which conſumed the Back Part of his Shop, and ſome Dozens of Casks; but it was happily extinguiſhed without doing farther Damage.

Rob. &c. Sunday Even. laſt, between Eight and Nine, the Poſt-Boy coming for London with the Briſtol Mail, in the Lane between the Thicket and Maidenhead, was ſeized on by a tall luſty Man on Foot, in Light-Coloured Cloaths, and without Boots, who obliged the Boy to alight, and hold the Bridle and Stirrup till he mounted his Horſe, when he rode off with the intire Mail, containing 23 Bags. The Wallet, with two of the Bags, have been found. Divers Officers, &c. from the Gen. Poſt-Office, ſet out Yeſterday for Maidenhead, to make ſtrict Perquiſitions concerning this Matter, and 200l. additional Reward is offered for the apprehending any concerned in this daring Exploit.——Saturday Night laſt, the Salisbury Stage Coach was robbed by a ſingle Highwayman, who took from the Paſſengers about 3l. and two Watches. He was mounted on a Black Gelding.——Late the ſame Night, Mr. Bruce, belonging to the P. Wm. (going to the South-Seas) coming over Great-Tower-Hill, was, by two Street-Robbers, robbed of 9s.——Early Yeſterday Morn. the Bath, Reading and Newbury Stage-Coaches were robbed on Hounſlow-Heath, and four or five more Coaches were robbed, near that Place, by four Highwaymen extremely well mounted, who carried off a very conſiderable Booty. The Maſters of divers Weſtern Coaches are actually concerting Meaſures to prevent ſuch Inſults on their Paſſengers.

Pref. Laſt Friday the Lds. of the Admiralty put his Majeſty's Sloop Swift in Commiſſion, and gave the Command to Capt. Racket.——As alſo the Garland, a Sixth Rate, and gave the Command to Capt. Cockane.

Deaths. About the Middle of laſt Month died, at his Seat of Cullen Aboyn in Scotland, the R. Hon. James Earl of Finlater and Seaſield. He is ſucceeded in Honour and Eſtate by his Eldeſt Son the Ld. Deſkford. By this Nobleman's Demiſe, we hear, a Penſion of 2000 l. per Ann. devolves to the Crown.——Laſt Week died, at his Seat at Acclam in Yorkſhire, Sir William Huſtler, in his 80th Year. He was Member for the Borough of Northallerton in ſeveral Parliaments, a Gentleman of an unblemiſhed Character, and whoſe Loſs is much lamented.——Sunday Morn. died, at Fiſhmongers-Hall, Mr. Rich. Tanner, Clerk of that Company, Son to Mr. Tanner, Clerk of the Indictments.—— A few Days paſt, died, at her Houſe in Ship-Yard, Weſtm. Mrs. Paget, a Maiden Gentlewoman of Fortune and Merit.—— The Beginning of laſt Week died, of an Apoplexy, in Pall-Mall, Mr. Barker of Lincolnſhire, a Gentleman well beloved for his facetious Company, and great Integrity: He was reckoned ſo much to reſemble the late King of Sweden, that a Print of him, drawn by Faber, is ſold for the Portrait of that brave Prince.——Alſo, laſt Week, died, in an advanced Age, at his Seat at Headenham, near Bungay in Norfolk, Clare Garney, Eſq; a Gentleman greatly beloved by the Poor, to whom he was remarkably liberal. His Eſtate, which is very conſiderable, devolves to his Son Richmond Garney, Eſq;

WEDNESDAY, September 2.

Windſor-Caſtle, Aug. 31. Chevalier Oſſorio, Envoy-Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia, received a Courier from his Court, with an Account, that his Sardinian Majeſty had reſigned his Crown, &c. to the Prince of Piemont his Son, and deſigned to retire to his Caſtle of Chamberi in Savoy; and this Day his ſaid Excellency had Audience of his Majeſty, at which he preſented his Credential Letters from the preſent King to his Majeſty.

On the 24th Inſt. one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers arrived here from Spain, being diſpatched by Mr. Keene his Majeſty's Miniſter at that Court, with the Catholic King's Cedula for the South-Sea Company's Annual Ship, in the moſt ample Form.——Alſo, by the ſaid Meſſenger, came Advice, that his Catholic Majeſty had appointed Marquis Monteleone his Embaſſador to the Court of Great Britain, and that Orders had been ſent him to repair thither with all poſſible Expedition, Laſt Night ended the Seſſions at the Old-Baily, when the above 11 Criminals received Sentence of Death. Three were burned in the Hand; two ordered to be whipped, and 56 are to be tranſported. The Trial of Tho. Haſſel, late of the Gen. Poſt-Office, for opening a Letter and taking thence a 50l. Bank-Note, is, at his earneſt Application, poſtponed till the ſucceeding Seſſions. This done, ſeveral Inſolvent Debtors were brought down from the Fleet-Priſon, and cleared by Mr. Serjeant Raby, purſuant to Act of Parliament.

They write from Oxford, that, early laſt Sunday Morn. four Scots Pedlars being there, one of them, having drank a little too much, was determined to go for Reading; the others, with a View of diſſuading him from that his Deſign, offered to ſee him Part of his Way; and ſeeing a Light at an Alehouſe in St. Thomas's Pariſh, they knocked, but were refuſed Entrance; on which one of them, named John Armſtrong, took up ſome ſmall Stones, &c. and flung at the Window. Franklin, the Landlord, opening the Caſement, preſented a Gun, and ſhot him in the Face, ſo that he loſt both his Eyes, and was elſewhere ſo much wounded that his Life is in the utmoſt Danger. This over-raſh Publican was inſtantly ſeized, and is now in the City Priſon.

Rob. &c. Monday Night laſt, about Ten, Mr. Stone, Serj.-Major of the firſt Reg. of Foot.-Guards, was knocked down, by the End of the Mall in St. James's Park, and robbed of one Guinea and 14s. his Silver-hilted Sword and Cane. He was ſtunned ſome Time with the Blow; but recovering, he called out to the Centinel, who ſecured one Man, and himſelf overtook another, who were carried to the Tilt-Yard Guard-Room: Afterwards two Women came to ſee for their Aſſociates, and were likewiſe ſecured; but the Sword and Cane not appearing among them, Search was made in the Graſs by the Canal, where they were found. They all denied the Fact; but Yeſterday Morn. being carried before Juſtice Cotten in King-Street, Weſtm. they were all bound over.—— A Perſon who has an Employment in the King's Houſhold has been taken up; being charged with committing ſeveral Robberies on Hounſlow Heath: He is in Cuſtody at Windſor.——A Bill for a ſmall Sum of Money, drawn by Geo. Huxley, Eſq; the Commiſſary-General, on Mr. Cranwell, one of the Clerks of the War-Office, being taken from a Perſon on Hounſlow Heath, the ſame was brought to the War-Office for Payment by a Perſon at Retherhith, who is now in Cuſtody.

Pref. Laſt Week a Patent paſſed the Great Seal, appointing the Rev. Dr. Creſwick Dean of Briſtol, in the room of the Rev. Dr. Booth deceaſed.

Births. Friday laſt, the Lady of Edw. Harley, Eſq; Mem. of Parl. for the County of Hereford, was ſafely delivered of a Son, at his Houſe in Lincolns-Inn-Fields. She is Siſter to Sir Wm. Morgan of Tredegar.——To-morrow Even. the new-born Son of the Lord Harvey is to be baptized at his Lordſhip's Houſe in Burlington-Gardens. His R. H. the P. of Wales, and his Grace the D. of Richmond are to ſtand Godfathers, and her Grace the Junior Dutcheſs of Marlborough Godmother.

Deaths. Laſt Saturday died, at Richmond, Mrs. Arabella Houblon, a Maiden Lady, in the 60th Year of her Age. She was Daughter to Sir John Houblon, formerly Ld. Mayor of London, and a very eminent Turky Merchant.——The ſame Day died Mr. Baker, who recovered a conſiderable Part of Admiral Hoſier's Eſtate from his —— Widow; by whoſe Death we hear Part of it goes to a Glover in Lincoln's-Inn.——The Beginning of laſt Week died, at his Seat at Ripley in Surrey, Nathaniel Sturt, Eſq; Coroner for the ſaid County.

THURSDAY, September 3.

From Edinburgh we learn; that the Laws againſt wearing printed Callicoes and Indian Damasks were, the 26th paſt, begun to be ſtrictly put in Execution, and ſeveral Women were apprehended in the Streets, with Gowns of the ſame, who are to be fined as the Law therein directs. The Penalty for wearing Damasks and Chints is 200l Sterling, and for wearing printed Callicoes, 5l. Sterling for each Offence.

The Mary, Capt. Walmſley, which ſailed from Nevis the 25th of June, for London, in Company with two Ships which arrived here about three Weeks ſince, foundered at Sea, about 300 Leagues from the Land's-End, but her Crew was fortunately ſaved by a French Ship from Martinico, which carried them to Rochelle.

Laſt Tueſday, at Woolwich, happened a very great Tumult, wherein many People were grievouſly bruiſed and wounded. The particulars being too long to inſert, we refer our Readers to this Day's Daily-Journal.

The Weſtminſter Aſſize-Table for Bread is ſet; the Peck-Loaf, fine Wheaten, at 1s. 4d. and ſo in Proportion.

His Majeſty has ordered a Royal Proclamation to be iſſued, for ſummoning the Peers of Scotland to meet at Holyrood-Houſe at Edinburgh, to elect a Peer to repreſent that Part of Great Britain in Parl. in the room of the Earl of Seafield and Finlater, deceaſed.

From good Hands we have it, that the Rev. Mr. John Henley, deſigns to put in for the Prize of the next Queſtion in the Royal Academy of Paris, which, we hear, is concerning the original Formation of Sounds.

We are aſſured, that the Cargo of the Eaſt-India Ship Eyles, late arrived from Bengal, coſt upwards of 110,000l. Sterling, in India.

Caſual. Laſt Tueſday, a Lad, of about 16, fell from a ſecond-Story Window, in Leadenhall-Street, and broke his Thigh-Bone. He was carried to the Hoſpital.——A few Days paſt, as Mr. Morris, Glazier in Golden-Lane, was going in a Chaiſe to Endfield, accompanied by his Father, the Chaiſe overturned, and the aged Gentleman's Skull was ſo fractured, that he languiſhed till Tueſday laſt and then died. Early Yeſterday Morn. a Woman very well dreſſed was found dead, in a Field beyond Iſlington, with ſeveral Marks of Violence about her; particularly her Fingers cruelly mangled and bruiſed, ſuppoſed to have been done by Villains by whom ſhe was robbed and murdered.

Mar. Tho. Allen, Eſq; of Fiſh-Street Hill, was lately married to Miſs Liſle, a very agreeable young Gentlewoman.——As was, laſt Thurſday, at St. Paul's Cathedral, John Stracey, Eſq; one of the Sheriff's Court Judges, to Miſs Harding, a young Gentlewoman of Merit and Fortune.——And, on the ſame Day, in the ſame Place, Mr. Weſtwood, Apothecary of Lombard-Street, eſpouſed the ſecond Daughter of John Bodicoat, Eſq; Receiver-Gen. for the County of Eſſex.

Death. Some Days ſince died, at Lincoln, the Rev. Mr. Lawrence Echard, Archdeacon of Stow, Prebendary of Lowth in the Church of Lincoln, and Rector of Rendleſham and Sudborne cum Orford Capella in the County of Suffolk: This worthy Gentleman's Merit is well known to the Learned; having publiſhed the Roman Hiſtory in five Vols. 8vo. the Eccleſiaſtical Hiſtory in Folio, the Hiſtory of England in Folio, with many others.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Arrived Mails.——Thurſday; one from Flanders.——Friday; one from Holland.——Sunday; one from France.——Monday; one from Holland.——Wedneſday; one from France, and one from Flanders.

HAGUE, Aug. 29. Moſt of the Miniſters here ſeem to hold faſt their Opinion, that there will not be a Rupture this Year; becauſe they are perſuaded the Crowns of England and France will avert it, if it be poſſible: But our Letters from Spain would make us believe, it is out of their Power; the Q. perſiſting in her Reſolution to go upon the Expedition this Year, and alleging that Time is the more precious, becauſe neither the King's Health nor his Inclination are much to be depended on. There is another Reaſon ſome People imagine to be of Weight with the Q. of Spain; and that is, that being out of Humour with the Allies, for their Delays, and Non-Performance of what ſhe calls their Engagements, and confiding that they will not be at the Rendevous, notwithſtanding their Promiſes and the Meaſures concerted, ſhe is determined to make an Attempt before the Arrival of the Flotilla; that ſo, if it ſhould miſcarry, ſhe may have a Pretence to lay her Hands upon the Treaſure, by Way of Indemnification, as ſhe did upon that brought by the Galleons after they had been ſo long blocked up at Porto-Bello. What Ground there may be for a Surmiſe of this ſort, we cannot ſay; but be it as it will, the Engliſh Merchants would be principally affected, ſhould ſuch a Thing happen; for the French lying in the Route of the Spaniſh Fleet, and inſiſting (as they do) that they are ready to join the ſame, whenever it appears in the Gulf of Lyons, the Spaniards will have no Pretence for laying the Blame at their Door. Upon the whole Matter, Count Zinzendorf, the Emperor's Miniſter here, thinks her Catholic Majeſty will content herſelf this Year with ſending the 6000 Spaniards to ſhew themſelves upon the Coaſt of Tuſcany; and in caſe they are denied Entrance, as ſhe expects, thoſe 6000 Men are to poſſeſs themſelves of the Iſle of Elba, on the ſaid Coaſt, and take their Winter Quarters there, in order to be ready to go on any Enterpriſe when called upon.——The Trade of Rotterdam is obſerved to droop, and that of Amſterdam to riſe in Proportion. Poſſibly they may not be ſo very exact there, in collecting their Duties of Import and Export. They are reckoned eaſy upon this Article alſo in Zealand, which may be one Reaſon why the Ports of that Province are very much frequented, and their Navigation kept up. But if our Information be true, there are Merchants at Rotterdam, who find their Account in receiving their Goods by the Way of Amſterdam and Middelburg, though they pay Carriage from thoſe Places to Rotterdam.

By Yeſterday's Foreign Mails we learn, that the Malecontents of Corſica have abſolutely refuſed all Offers of Accommodation: [But on this Subject we ſhall be ſomewhat particular in our next.] That the good old Pontiff moſt reſolutely and tenaciouſly continues holding his Paſtoral Staff in his own Hand: That all Differences are at length accommodated between the Court of Rome and Liſbon, his Portugueſe Majeſty being on the point of ſending Count Galveas and Cardinal Motta to compliment his Holineſs on his Acceſſion to S. Peter's Chair: That S. Bichi is ſoon expected at Liſbon; and that he is now as good as ſure of a Cardinal-ſhip——That there are now 8000 Spaniſh Troops at Alicante, and more arriving daily; but that the Preparations for their imbarking go on ſlowly: That all the Tranſports, &c. have received a Month's Pay, and are ſoon to have a ſecond.——That at Barcelona the Tranſports have received two Month's Pay; and that on the 28th paſt, N. S. they began to Ship off the Heavy Artillery.—That the Governor and Poveditor of Legborn has received a Letter from the Grand Duke's Secretary, ordering them to acquaint all the Merchants; "That the Spaniſh Reſident has aſſured his R. "H. that his Catholic Majeſty has not the leaſt Deſign to "moleſt any of his Territories."—This, add they, affords ſome Comfort.—That the Dutch Commodore Schryver arrived at Cadiz, the 17th paſt, N. S. with a Salle Corſair of 18 Guns, as Prize, and a Dutch Fly-Boat, bound from S. Ubes to the Baltic, which the ſaid Sea-Rover had juſt taken. This Barbary Cruiſer had on Board the Crew of an Engliſh Veſſel, bound from London to Carolina. She had alſo taken a French Ship, from Marſeilles for Havre de Grace, which two laſt Ships, together with the Crew of the French Veſſel, the Corſairs had ſent away for Sallee. As Capt. Schryver is to perform his Quarantine at Cadiz, he has fitted out the Muriſh Ship, and ſent her in Queſt of two other Sallee-Rovers, which he is informed are now on the Cruiſe.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

WHereas an anonymous Advertiſement was printed in the D. Poſt of Saturday laſt, ſetting forth that ſeveral Diſorders are commonly committed during the Time of Southwark-Fair, by building of Booths and Tents, in a Place called the Green (adjoining and belonging to the Borough of Southwark) filled with malicious and falſe Suggeſtions, with an Intention to prevent the right Owners receiving the legal Profits of their Eſtates, and to invade the Properties of honeſt and well meaning People, who have already built, and are now building Booths, &c. at a great Charge and Expence.

Therefore this is to give Notice, That if any Perſon or Perſons do moleſt or diſturb any of the aforeſaid Owners in their Buildings on the ſaid Green, during the legal Time of the Fair, according to a Charter granted in the Reign of Edward VI. they ſhall be proſecuted according to Law.

ALDRIDGE'S Original, Fine PUNCH; univerſally approved of, for its Goodneſs, Cheapneſs and Uſefulneſs, both for Land and Sea, continues to be made and ſold, by the ſaid Mr. ALDRIDGE, at the HAND and STILL, near BEAR-KEY, London: Where Victuallers and all other Dealers may be ſupplied with the ſaid PUNCH, at 2s. per Gallon.——N. B. This PUNCH keeps good many Years.

The Cargo of the Fleet (as Regiſtered) that arriv'd at Cadiz, the 18th of Auguſt from La Vera Cruz, and is eſteemed worth 19,000,000 of Pieces of Eight. Beſides, the heavy Indultos lately taken, may have induced Perſons abroad rather to run the Riſque of having their Treaſure ſeiz'd, than ſubject it, by Regiſtering, to the like Diminution.

It is believed the King will ſoon cauſe a juſt Diſtribution to be made on the antient Indulto of 5 per Cent.
